Mom & Me Booth Sales
In order to give an opportunity to the Girl Scouts who continue to strive for their personal goals, we allow (1) mom and (1) daughter to host a booth sale. A “Mom” can be any adult that the parent/guardian of the Girl Scout permits to sell with the Girl Scout and is not required to be an approved volunteer. Parents & guardians, please pick the best “Mom” to help your Girl Scout be successful at the booth. *To participate in the Mom and Me booth sale, the following conditions must be met:

Guidelines:

- Adults must sign the Mom and Me Booth Sales Contract and take a short eTraining course in order to participate with their Girl Scout. NO OTHER PERSONS MAY BE PRESENT AT THE MOM AND ME BOOTH SALE, INCLUDING SIBLINGS.
- The troop must agree that they have signed up for as many locations as desired prior to Mom and Me sign ups.
- The parent/guardian is financially responsible for all cookies and money in their daughter’s possession. Troop Leaders should ensure that they received a signed cookie program permission slip for every girl selling in their troop.
- Girls selling MUST stay at the booth at all times.
- Girls should be identifiable as a Girl Scout.
- Do NOT block entrances or exits of the establishment and only approach customers EXITING.
- Each girl/mom will be responsible for providing cash for change and a container to keep it safe.
- Bring your own supplies: tables chairs, signage, pens/pencils, calculator, etc.
- Avoid eating, drinking and chewing gum.
- Bring lots of smiles, good manners and a polite voice. Say “please” and “thank you”. Be considerate to others.
- LEAVE THE AREA CLEANER THAN YOU FOUND IT! Take empty cases back home to recycle.
- Protect the cookies! Keep them out of direct sun and dampness.
- Count cookies and money at the beginning and end of each shift to make sure you balance.
- Remember, only girls sell Girl Scout cookies.

I agree to perform the above responsibilities. I agree that the cookies I accept become my financial responsibility while in my possession and records must be maintained and submitted appropriately.
