Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God* and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

Remember that Girl Scout Volunteers are also Girl Scouts and model the Girl Scout Promise and Law in word and deed.

Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong, and responsible for what I say and do,
and to
respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place, and be a sister to every Girl Scout.

Enter payments on the Banking and Payments section.

- * Click on the girl to add a payment for.
- * Enter the amount, payment type, and any notes

* It's recommended to add any check numbers to the notes just in case.

Note about checks: Typically, customers can write a check out to Girl Scout Troop XXXX or Girl Scouts of Silver Sage. However, Troops can also choose to only accept checks from parents in which customers would write them out to the parent and the parent pays the troop. Either method is okay!

Wrapping it up: Closeout

- Make sure each girl has paid in full
 - You can enter payments in the M2 system to help you keep track!
- Get confirmation from the bank that monies were paid & verify amount through ACH process in late November.
- Collect all receipts.
- Keep lists for distributing rewards at the end (early-mid December).
- Keep everything through the end of the season and submit to Treasurer or volunteer who is completing the Troop Annual Report.

Real sales. Real money.

- We are dealing with real customers, real transactions and real money.
- Collect money @ each meeting – someone dedicated off to the side to collect.
 - Count with someone else
 - Both TFPM and Parent sign a receipt immediately
- Make deposits regularly.
- Parents have signed receipts accepting financial responsibility. We will hold the responsible party accountable for any monies owed because it all belongs to the girls.
 - If Troop has bad debt from parent, keep track of contact points. Email is great for this.
 - TFPM is empowered. You can choose not to order the merchandise that remains unpaid, choose not to let someone with debt participate except for direct-ship, etc.
 - Financially and/or criminally responsible

Accurate counting is critical. If your troop is off by just 1 box of English Butter Toffee, that's the equivalent of losing 10 items worth of proceeds.

Every item sold up front; funds collected at time of sale. NEVER distribute product until paid.

GIRL SCOUT'S PERSONALIZED EXPERIENCE

Design an Avatar

There are many types of hair, clothing, faces, hair, and accessories – over 2 million combinations, even adult avatars!

Girls absolutely love making their avatars! Some Troops use them for other things like a Troop “photo”.

We’ve heard from other councils that many Troops put on an avatar-making party at a meeting in early September.
