

Girl Scout Week Proclamation

WHEREAS, March 12, 2025, marks the 113th anniversary of Girl Scouts of the United States of America, whose mission is to “build girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place;”

WHEREAS, Girl Scouts offers girls 21st century programming in science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM); the outdoors; entrepreneurship; and beyond, helping girls develop invaluable life skills through the Girl Scout Leadership Experience;

WHEREAS, today, more than 50 million women—trailblazers, visionaries, and leaders—are Girl Scout alums who embody the Girl Scout mission every day; WHEREAS, the Girl Scout Movement began on March 12, 1912, when Juliette “Daisy” Gordon Low, a native of Savannah, Georgia, organized a group of 18 girls and provided them with the opportunity to develop physically, intellectually, socially, and spiritually;

WHEREAS, public service and civic engagement were a cornerstone of Juliette Gordon Low’s life and remain an important part of today’s Girl Scout experience, with programming designed to encourage girls to seek opportunities to learn about federal, state, and local government; research and engage with their elected officials; and inspire girls to become civically minded individuals equipped with the tools to make a positive change in the world;

WHEREAS, Girl Scouts’ commitment to getting girls outdoors, including exciting summer camp experiences, comes from Juliette Gordon Low’s lifelong appreciation for nature and the environment;

WHEREAS, Juliette Gordon Low utilized her extensive network of friends across the country and around the world to establish the foundation for the Girl Scout Movement, creating opportunities for girls to form lifelong friendships with fellow Girl Scouts;

WHEREAS, Juliette Gordon Low believed in the power of global connections and the ability of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts to positively impact their communities and the world, serving as the Movement’s worldwide ambassador and first Girl Scout Global Citizen;

WHEREAS, on March 25, 2025, the Juliette Gordon Low Commemorative Quarter will be released into circulation by the United States Mint, celebrating the enduring legacy the Girl Scout founder and the Girl Scout Movement;

WHEREAS, Juliette Gordon Low's journey from trailblazing leader to a face on our nation's currency is a testament to the power of girls and women everywhere; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I _____, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of _____, do hereby applaud the Girl Scout Movement and Girls Scouts of Silver Sage for 113 years of building girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place, and I declare the week of Sunday, March 10th as Girl Scout Week.
